

Non-Disclosure Agreement

1. The student taking his/her diploma examination/the doctoral student has to observe strict secrecy about all scientific and business issues as well as about all other remaining issues that have been learned during the pursuance of his/her activities and of which the non-disclosure could be of commercial interest for the MUW.
2. The student taking his/her diploma examination/the doctoral student particularly pledges himself to treat all methods, constructions, discoveries, inventions, computer programs, business secrets, concepts, documents, patents, patent applications or any other confidential information placed at the student's/doctoral student's disposal during his activities at the MUW (hereinafter called "confidential information") or else become known within the scope of his/her activities, strictly confidential.
3. This confidential information is and remains property of the MUW.
4. The student taking his/her diploma examination/the doctoral student agrees to keep the confidential information strictly private and confidential as well as to explicitly use it within the scope of his/her activities; the student taking his/her diploma examination/the doctoral student will not distribute any confidential information resp. copies thereof to anybody else than employees of the MUW who have to become acquainted with this confidential information.
5. The obligations of the student/doctoral student with regard to this confidential information do not apply to any confidential information that verifiably
 - a) is lawfully publicly known at the moment of the student's/doctoral student's acknowledgement;
 - b) becomes publicly known independent of the student's/doctoral student's negligence or without causation of the student/or doctoral student;
 - c) is lawfully placed at the student's/doctoral student's disposal by a third party;
 - d) has been approved in writing by the MUW for publication by the student/doctoral student.
6. In case of breach of this non-disclosure the student/doctoral student pledges himself/herself to the payment of a contractual penalty in the amount of € 1.000 (Euro one thousand). The assertion of further damages claims remains inviolate.
7. Upon completion of the activities of the student/doctoral student all confidential information has to be handed over to the MUW; it is strictly forbidden to copy the documents for his/her own purposes
8. The obligation of the student/doctoral student with regard to the confidential information begins at the moment of signing this declaration by the student/doctoral student and continues to exist after the completion of the activities at the MUW.